DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 42, 43, 45, 46, 48, 49, 51, and 52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA), newly cited.

Re. Claims 42, 45, 48, and 51, AAPA discloses in figures 1 and 3, a semiconductor wafer which comprises:

a plurality of integrated circuits, each of said integrated circuits separated from the other of said integrated circuits by ascribe region at the periphery of each said integrated circuit; each of said integrated circuits including:

a centrally disposed core region 40;

at least one bond pad 12 disposed between said core region and said scribe region;

an electrostatic discharge device 14; and an I/O buffer 16 disposed between said scribe region and said core region and laterally of said bond pad relative to said core region and said scribe region, when figure 1 is viewed such that it is turned 90 degrees in the clockwise direction.

Re. Claims 43, 46, 49, and 52, figure 1 discloses all the limitations in the claim, as discussed above. The ESD device would be partially beneath the bond pad, when the figure is viewed such that it is turned 180 degrees.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 44, 47, 50 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over AAPA.

AAPA discloses the claimed invention, as discussed above, except for I/O buffer is disposed laterally of said bond pad relative to the region and the scribe region. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to rearrange the location of the buffer in order to maximize the real estate efficient usage of a wafer surface. See In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70 for the proposition that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the previously rejected claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
